Oxford County United Parish

Embracing Albany, North Lovell, East Stonham, North Waterford, Waterford and Center Lovell. Pastoral Staff: Revs. W. I. Bull, R. A. Brandon, A. C. Townsend, R. W. Hurlburt.

Rev. W. I. Bull has been absent for several weeks, on account of the illness of his father, at Billerica, Mass. During his absence, his place on the Staff is being taken by Rev. R. W. Hurlburt.

The annual meeting of the Council was held at South Waterford on Thursday of last week. The sessions were held in the renovated Wesleyan Chapel, while the dinner was served in the dining room of the Grange Hall. At the forenoon business session, very encouraging reports from all departments of the work were given. The financial statement was completed, bids fair to be successful in spite of the general depression. After six years, the larger parish plan appears to have gained the approval of all the communities represented by the work.

The exercises in the afternoon took the form of a rededication of the Wesleyan Chapel of South Waterford, which, during the past summer, has been renovated and painted inside. The address of the afternoon was delivered by Rev. Carl N. Garland, District Superintendent of the Portland District of the Methodist Church.

Services will be held in the Wesleyan Chapel every other Sunday afternoon, alternating with East Waterford where a service was held last Sunday.

The Staff will supply the center Lovell church during the coming winter, services having been held there on the past two Sundays.

A Five-Night Teacher Training School is being held each Monday evening in the Wilkins Community House at East Waterford. Courses are being given by Revs. Brandon and Townsend.

The young people of the Parish have organized a Junior Council and are holding discussion meetings each Sunday evening, alternating between East Stonham and Waterford. They met at Waterford last Sunday evening and discussed "Opportunities." The subject for next Sunday evening, at East Stonham, will be "Smoking."

The Junior Council plans to hold a social once in two weeks, alternating between East Stonham and Waterford. The next one will be at the Wilkins House, Waterford, next Friday evening. While it is in the hands of the young people, those older are cordially invited to attend.

Roderic Hurlburt were there and helped to make the affair a successful one. It is planned to have sales and entertainments in the future for the benefit of the library.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE PARTY

Saturday evening, Nov. 7th, a birthday surprise party given to Irving Morey at Camp Adheme by Mrs. and Mrs. Roland Bennett and guests of Auburn, terminated in a double surprise for Irving. When he visited his traps he found two large cats, a nice milk and five muskrats (some birthday present, says Irving). He entertained the party by showing them to remove the pelts and prepare them for the fur dealers. Mrs. Randle, who is a nurse demonstrated autopsy, amputations and surgery on the different animals, adding much enjoyment for all. A nice birthday cake decorated with lighted candles and ice cream was served. The remaining part of the evening was spent in playing cards and wishing continued luck to the trapper.

This was an event to be long remembered.

Mrs. Bert Brown and children of Harmony, who have been spending with Mrs. Sarah Brown, returned home, Saturday.

Buttermilk contains most of the vitamins B and C present in whole milk, but since the butterfat has been almost entirely removed, vitamins A and D, which are soluble in fat, will be limited in amount, depending on how much butterfat remains. The buttermilk is valuable as a food in spite of this lack, but when it is necessary to include larger amounts of vitamins A and D in the diet, whole milk should be used.

WATERFORD

Party at Community House

Jack Frost played a mean prank Saturday night. The temperature went down to near the zero mark for comfort after the lovely warm weather we have been enjoying, and the owners of "warm weather blumbers" found themselves obliged to spend Sunday in thawing out frozen water pipes. No serious damage is reported.

A jolly party was held at the Wilkins Community House on Friday evening. A Circle supper was served at 6:30 o'clock, after which the school children gave a fine entertainment of plays, recitations and music. It was so near Halloween that witches, elves and ghosts were much in evidence, all in appropriate costumes. Charles Abbott of Bridgton Highlands was present and sang several selections, which were much enjoyed. After the program, games and stunts were enjoyed, including a cake walk in which Herman Holt was the lucky winner and carried home the cake, which was a very handsome one. There was a large audience present and a good sum of money taken, which will be used to install electric lights in the schoolhouse.

The girls of the 4-H Club, of which Mrs. Tyler and Mrs. Collins are the leaders, held a first prize prize from the county meeting at South Paris. James Tyler won second prize on his pig.

L. R. Rounds has been sick for a few days.

There was a good turnout of voters at the special town meeting on Monday and the majority voted "yes" on the Code Bill.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Morgan are spending the week at their camp in Greenwood.

Among the artists who appeared on the program were Randolph Brooks, boy cornetist, fifteen years of age, and Clifford Ramsdell, baritone, and district winner in the recent Atwater Kent audition, Mrs. Thomas, reader, and Mrs. Stott, accompanist. All the artists with the exception of Mrs. Thomas had appeared here before. The audience was very appreciative.
